I BELIEVE in God the Father, Almighty Maker of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried. The third day he arose again from the dead, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence he shall come to judge both the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost, the holy catholic church, the communion of the saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
THE LORD'S PRAYER

OUR Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.
THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

PUT INTO SHORT AND EASY RHYMES FOR CHILDREN.

1. THOU shalt have no more gods but me.
2. Before no idol bend thy knee.
3. Take not the name of God in vain.
4. Dare not the Sabbath day profane,
5. Give both thy parents honor due.
6. Take heed that thou no murder do.
7. Abstain from words and deeds unclean.
8. Steal not, though thou be poor and mean.
9. Make not a wilful lie, nor love it.
10. What is thy neighbor’s dare not covet.

AN ALPHABET OF LESSONS FOR CHILDREN

A WISE son makes a glad father, but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.

BETTER is a little, with the fear of the Lord, than great treasure, and trouble therewith.

COME unto Christ, all ye who labor and are heavy hiden, and he will give you rest.

Do not the abominable thing which I hate, saith the Lord.

EXCEPT a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

FOOLISHNESS is bound up in the heart of a child, but the rod of correction will drive it from him.

GRIEVE not the Holy Spirit, lest it depart from thee.

IT is good for me to draw near unto God.

KEEP thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life.

LIARS will have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brinistone

MANY are the afflictions of the righteous but the Lord delivers them out of them all.

NOW is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation.

OUT of the abundance of the heart thy mouth speaketh.

PRAY to thy Father who is in secret, and, thy Father who sees in secret will reward thee openly.

QUIT you like men; be strong; stand fast in the faith.

REMEMBER thy Creator in the days of thy youth.

SALVATIONbelongeth unto the Lord.

TRUST in God at all times, ye people; pour out your hearts before him.
UPON the wicked God will rain a horrible tempest.

WOE to the wicked; it will be ill with him, for the reward of his hand will be given him.

EXHORT one another daily while it is called to-day, lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.

YOUNG men, you have overcome the wicked one.

ZEAL hath consumed me, because my enemies have forgotten the word of God.
MORNING PRAYER FOR A CHILD

Now I wake and see the light:
'Tis God who kept me through the night.
To him I lift my voice, and pray
That he would keep me through the day.
If I should die before 'tis done,
O God, accept me through thy Son.
EVENING PRAYER FOR A CHILD

Now I lay me down to sleep;
I pray the Lord my soul to keep;
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take.
AGUR'S PRAYER

Remove far from me vanity and lies; give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me; lest I be full and deny thee, and say, "Who is the Lord?" or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of God in vain.
Duty of Children to Their Parents

God hath commanded, saying, "Honor thy Father and thy mother; and he that curseth father or mother, let him die the death."
Uncertainty Of Life

I IN the burying place may see
Graves shorter there than I;
From death's arrest no age is free
Young children, too, may die.

My God, may such an awful sight
Awakening be to me!
O that by early grace I might
For death prepared be!
ON LIFE AND DEATH

Life and the grave two different lessons give;
Life shows us how to die, death how to live
BLESS me, O Lord, and let my food strengthen me to serve thee, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.
I desire to thank God, who gives me food to eat every day of my life. Amen.
THE SUM OF THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

WITH all thy soul love God above,
And as thyself thy neighbor love
OUR SAVIOR'S GOLDEN RULE

BE you to others kind and true,
As you'd have others be to you,
And neither do nor say to men
Whate'er you would not take again
CHOICE SENTENCES

1. PRAYING will make thee leave sinning, or sinning will make thee leave praying.
2. What we are afraid to speak before men, we should be afraid to think before God.
THE DUTIFUL CHILD'S PROMISE

I WILL fear God and honor the good.
I will honor my father and mother,
I will obey my superiors.

DR. WATTS'S CRADLE HYMN

HUSH, my dear; lie still and slumber
Holy angels guard thy bed;
Heavenly blessings, without number,
Gently falling on thy head.

Sleep, my babe! Thy food and raiment,
House and home, thy friends provide,
All without thy care or payment;
All thy wants are well supplied.

How much better thou'rt attended
Than the Son of God could be,
When from heaven he descended,
And became a child like thee!

Soft and easy is thy cradle;
Coarse and hard thy Savior lay,
When his birthplace was a stable,
And his softest bed was hay.

Blessed Babe! what glorious features.
Spotless, fair, divinely bright!
Must he dwell with brutal creatures?
How could angels bear the sight?

Was there nothing but a manger
Cursed sinners could afford
To receive the heavenly Stranger?
Did they thus affront the Lord?

Soft, my child! I did not chide thee,
Though my song may sound too hard
'Tis thy mother sits beside thee,
And her arms shall be thy guard.

Yet to read the shameful story,
How the Jews abused their King,
How they served the Lord of glory,
Makes me angry while I sing.

See the kinder shepherds round him,
Telling wonders from the sky;
There they sought him, there they found him,
With his virgin mother by.

See the lovely Babe a-dressing—
Lovely Infant! how he smiled!
When he wept, his mother's blessing
Soothed and hushed the holy Child.

Lo! he slumbers in a manger,
Where the horned oxen fed
Peace, my darling! here's no danger
Here's no oxen near thy bed.

'Twas to save thee, child, from dying,
Save my dear from burning flame,
Bitter groans and endless crying,
That thy blest Redeemer came.

May'st thou live to know and fear him,
Trust and love him, all thy days;
Then go dwell forever near him,
See his face, and sing his praise.

I could give thee thousand kisses,
Hoping what I most desire;
Not a mother's fondest wishes
Can to greater joy aspire.

----------

O GREAT Almighty God above,
Plant in my breast a fund of love,
That I thy mercies may adore,
And bless and praise thee evermore.
THE boy that's to his book inclined
Will soon a golden treasure find.
OFFICES OF HUMANITY

THOU shalt not see thy brother’s ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.

And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him agian.

In like manner shalt thou do with his ass, and so shalt thou do with his raiment, and with all lost things of thy brother’s, which he hath lost and and thou hast found, shalt thou do likewise thou mayest not hide thyself.

Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift them up again.
MR. JOHN ROGERS, minister of the gospel in London, was the first martyr in Queen Mary's reign; and was burnt at Smithfield, February the fourteenth, 1554. His wife, with nine small children, and one at her breast, followed him to the stake, with which sorrowful sight he was not in the least daunted, but with wonderful patience died courageously for the gospel of JESUS CHRIST.

A few days before his death, he wrote the following advice to his children:--

GIVE ear, my children, to my word,
Whom God hath dearly bought;
Lay up his laws within your heart,
And print them in your thought.

I leave you here a little book,
For you to look upon,
That you may see your father's face,
When he is dead and gone;--

Who, for the hope of heavenly things,
While he did here remain,
Gave over all his golden years
To prison and to pain;--

Where I, among my iron bands,
Enclosed in the dark,
Not many days before my death,
Composed for you this work.

And for example to your youth,
To whom I wish all good,
I send you here God's perfect truth,
And seal it with my blood;--

To on, my heirs of earthly things,
Whom I do leave behind,
That you may read and understand,
    And keep it in your mind;--

That as you have been heirs of that
    Which once will wear away,
You also may possess that part
    Which never will decay.

Keep always God before your eyes,
    With all your whole intent,
Commit no sin in any wise,
    But keep his commandments.

Abhor that arrant whore of Rome,
    And all her blasphemies,
And drink not of her cursed cup;
    Obey not her decrees.

Give honor to your mother dear;
    Remember well her pain;
And recompense her, in her age,
    With the like love again.

Be always ready for her help,
    And let her not decay;
Remember well your father all,
    Who should have been your stay.

Give of your portion to the poor,
    As riches do arise;
Arid from the needy, naked soul,
    Turn not away your eyes.

For he who doth not hear the cry
    Of those who stand in need,
Will cry himself; and not be heard,
    When he does hope to speed.

If God hath given you increase,
    And blessed well your store,
Remember you are put in trust,
   And should relieve the poor.

Beware of foul and filthy lusts;
   Let such things have no place,
Keep clean your vessels in the Lord,
   That he may you embrace.

You are the temples of the Lord,
   For you are dearly bought,
And they who do defile the same
   Will surely come to nought.

Be never proud, by any means,
   Build not your house too high;
But always have before your eyes
   That you were born to die.

Defraud not him who hired is,
   Your labor to sustain;
But pay him still, without delay,
   His wages for his pain.

And as you would that other men
   Towards you should proceed,
Do you the same to them again,
   When they do stand in need.

Impart your portion to the poor
   In money and in meat;
And send the feeble, fainting son,
   Of that which you do eat.

Ask counsel always of the wise
   Give ear unto the end,
And ne'er refuse the sweet rebuke
   Of him who is your friend.

Be always thankful to the Lord,
   With prayer and with praise,
Begging of him to bless your work,
And to direct your ways.

Seek first, I say, the living God,
And always him adore,
And then be sure that he will bless
Your basket and your store.

And I beseech Almighty God,
To replenish you with grace,
That I may meet you in the heavens,
And see you face to face.

And though the fire my body burn,
Contrary to my kind,
That I cannot enjoy your love,
According to my mind,--

Yet I do hope that when the heavens
Shall vanish like a scroll,
I shall see you in perfect shape
In body and in soul.

And that I may enjoy your love,
And you enjoy the land,
I do beseech the living Lord
To hold you in his hand.

Though here my body be adjudged
In flaming fire to fry,
My soul, I trust, will straight ascend
To dwell with God on high.

What though this carcass smart awhile?
What though this life decay?
My soul, I hope, will be with God,
And live with him for aye.

I know I am a sinner born,
From the original,
And that I do deserve to die,
By my forefather's fall.

But by our Savior's precious blood,
Which on the cross was spilt,
Who freely offered up his life,
To save our souls from guilt,—

I hope redemption I shall have,
And all who in him trust,
When I shall see him face to face,
And live among the just.

Why, then, hould I fear death's grim look,
Since Christ for me did die?
For king and Cesar, rich and poor,
The force of death must try.

When I am chained to the stake,
And fagots gird me round,
Then pray the Lord my soul in heaven
May be with glory crowned.

Come, welcome, death, the end of fears,
I am prepared to die;
These earthly flames will send my soul
Up to the Lord on high.

Farewell, my children, to the world,
Where you must yet remain;
The Lord of hosts is your defensee
Till we do meet again.

Farewell, my true, my loving wife,
My children, and my friends;
I hope in heaven to see you all,
When all things have their ends.

If you go on to serve the Lord,
As you have now begun,
You shall walk safely all your days,
Until your life, be done.

God grant you so to end your days,
As he shall think it best,
That I may meet you in the heavens,
Where I do hope to rest.
VERSES FOR LITTLE CHILDREN

THOUGH I am young, a little one,
If I can speak, and go alone,
Then I must learn to know the Lord,
And learn to read his holy word.
'Tis time to seek to God, and pray
For what I want for every day
I have a precious soul to save,
And I a mortal body have.
Though I am young, yet I may die,
And hasten to eternity.
There is a dreadful fiery hell,
Where wicked ones must always dwell.
There is a heaven, full of joy,
Where godly ones will always stay.
To one of these in my soul must fly,
As in a moment, when I die.
When God, who made me, calls me home,
I must not stay; I must be gone.
He gives me life, he gives me breath,
And he can save my soul from death,
By Jesus Christ, my only Lord,
According to his holy word.
He clothes my back, and keeps me warm,
He saves my bones and flesh from harm;
He gives me bread, and milk, and meat,
And all I have that's good to eat.
When I am sick, he, if he please,
Can make me well, and give me ease.
He gives me sleep and quiet rest,
Whereby my body is refreshed.
The Lord is good and kind to me,
And very thankful I must be.
I must not sin, as others do,
Lest I lie down in sorrow too;
For God is angry every day
With wicked ones who go astray.
From sinful words I must refrain;
I must not take God's name in vain
I must not work, I must not play,
Upon God's holy Sabbath day.
And if my parents speak the word,
I must obey them in the Lord,
Nor steal, nor lie, nor waste my days
In idle tales and foolish plays.
I must obey my Lord's commands,
Do something with my little hands.
Remember my Creator now,
In youth, when time will it allow.
Young Samuel, that little child,
He served the Lord, lived undefiled:
Him in his service God employed,
While Eli's wicked children died.
When wicked children, mocking, said
To a good man, Go up, bald head,
God was displeased with them, and sent
Two bears, which them in pieces rent
I must not, like these children vile,
Displease my God, myself defile
Like young Abijah, I must see
That good things may be found in me.
Young King Josiah, that blessed youth,
He sought the Lord and loved the truth,
He like a king did act his part,
And followed God with all his heart
The little children, they did sing
Hosannas to their heavenly King.
That blessed child, young Timothy,
Did learn God's word most heedfully.
It seemed to be his recreation,
Which made him wise unto salvation,
By faith in Christ which he had gained,
By prayers and tears with faith unfeigned,
These good examples were for me;
Like these good children I must be.
Give me true faith in Christ my Lord,
Obedience to his holy word.

No word is in this world like thine;
There's none so pure, sweet, and divine.
From thence let me thy will behold,
And love, thy word above fine gold.

Mahe my heart in thy statutes sound,
And make my faith and love abound:
Lord, circumcise my heart to love thee,
And nothing in this world above thee.
Let me behold thy pleased face,
And make my soul to grow in grace,
And in the knowledge of my Lord
And Savior Christ, and of his word.

-------------

FEAR thou the Lord, and prize him more
Than shining gold and richest ore
For when thy worldly treasure's past,
The love of God will ever last.
THE SHORTER CATECHISM

AGREED UPON BY THE REVEREND ASSEMBLY OF DIVINES AT WESTMINSTER.

Q. 82. Is any man able perfectly to keep the commandments of God?
A. No mere man, since the fall, is able, in this life, perfectly to keep the commandments of God, but doth daily break them in thought; word, and deed.
Q. 83. Are all transgressions of the law equally heinous?
A. Some sins in themselves, and by reason of several aggravations, are more heinous in the sight of God than others.

Q. 84. What doth every sin deserve?
A. Every sin deserveth God's wrath and curse, both in this life and that which is to come.

Q. 85. What doth God require of us, that we may escape his wrath and curse due to us for sin?
A. To escape the wrath and curse of God due to us for sin, God requireth of us faith in Jesus Christ, repentance unto life, with a diligent use of all the outward means whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of redemption.

Q. 86. What is faith in Jesus Christ?
A. Faith in Jesus Christ is a saving grace whereby we receive, and rest upon him alone for salvation, as he is offered to us in the gospel.

Q. 87. What is repentance unto life?
A. Repentance unto life is a saving grace, whereby a sinner, out of a true sense of his sin and apprehension of the mercy of God in Christ, doth, with grief and hatred of his sin, turn from it unto God, with full purpose of, and endeavor after, new obedience.

Q. 88. What are the outward means whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of redemption?
A. The outward and ordinary means whereby Christ communicateth to us the benefits of redemption, are, his ordinances, especially the word, sacraments, and prayer; all which are made effectual to the elect for salvation.

Q. 89. How is the word made effectual to salvation?
A. The Spirit of God maketh the reading but especially the preaching, of the word an effectual means of convincing and converting sinners, and of building them up in holiness and comfort through faith unto salvation.
Q. 90. How is the word to be read and heard, that it may become effectual to salvation?

A. That the word may become effectual to salvation, we must attend thereunto, with diligence, preparation, and prayer, receive it with faith and love, lay it up in our hearts, and practise it in our lives.

Q. 91. How do the sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not from any virtue in them, or in him that doth administer them, but only by the blessing of Christ, and the working of his Spirit in them that by faith receive them.

Q. 92. What is a sacrament?

A. A sacrament is a holy ordinance instituted by Christ, wherein, by sensible signs Christ and the benefits of the new covenant are represented, sealed, and applied to believers.

Q. 93. Which are the sacraments of the New Testament?

A. The sacraments of the New Testament are, baptism and the Lord's supper.

Q. 94. What is baptism?

A. Baptism is a sacrament wherein the washing with water in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, doth signify and seal our ingrafting into Christ, and partaking of the benefits of the covenant of grace, and our engagement to be the Lord's.

Q. 95. To whom is baptism to be administered?

A. Baptism is not to be administered to any that are out of the visible church, till they profess their faith in Christ and obedience to him; but the infants of such as are members of the visible church are to be baptized.

Q. 96. What is the Lord's supper?

A. The Lord's supper is a sacrament wherein, by giving and receiving bread and wine according to Christ's appointment, his death is showed forth, and the worthy receivers are not after a corporal and carnal manner, but by faith, made partakers of his body and blood, with all his benefits, to their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace.

Q. 97. What is required to the worthy receiving of the Lord's supper?

A. It is required of them that would worthily partake of the Lord's supper that they examine themselves, of their knowledge to discern the Lord’s body, of their faith to feed upon him, of their repentance, love, and new obedience, lest, coming unworthily, they eat and drink judgment to themselves.

98. What is prayer?

A. Prayer is an offering up of our desire unto God, for things agreeable to his will, in the name of Christ, with confession of our sins, and thankful acknowledgment of his mercies.

Q. 99. What rule hath God given for our direction in prayer?

A. The whole word of God is of use to direct us in prayer; but the special rule of direction is that form of prayer which Christ taught his disciples, commonly called the Lord's Prayer.

Q. 100. What doth the preface of the Lord's Prayer teach us?

A. The preface of the Lord's Prayer, which is, "Our Father, which art in heaven," teacheth us to draw near to God with all holy reverence and confidence, as children to a father, able and ready to help us, and that we should pray with and for others.

Q. 101. What do we pray for in the first petition?

A. In the first petition, which is, "Hallowed be thy name," we pray that God would enable us and others to glorify him in all that whereby he maketh himself known, and that he would dispose all things to his own glory.

Q. 102. What do we pray for in the second petition?

A. In the second petition, which is, "Thy kingdom come," we pray that Satan’s kingdom may be destroyed, and that the kingdom of grace may be advanced, ourselves and others brought into it, and kept in it, and that the kingdom of glory may be hastened.
Q. 103. What do we pray for in the third petition?

A. In the third petition, which is, "Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven," we pray that God, by his grace, would make us able and willing to know, obey, and submit to, his will in all things, as the angels do in heaven.

Q. 104. What do we pray for in the fourth petition?

A. In the fourth petition, which is, "Give us this day our daily bread," we pray that, of God's free gift, we may receive a competent portion of the good things of this life, and enjoy his blessing with them.

Q. 105. What do we pray for in the fifth petition?

A. In the fifth petition, which is, "And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors," we pray that God, for Christ's sake, would freely pardon all our sins: which we are the rather encouraged to ask, because by his grace we are enabled from the heart to forgive others.

Q. 106. What do we pray for in the sixth petition?

A. In the sixth petition, which is, "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil," we pray that God would either keep us from being tempted to sin, or support and deliver us when we are tempted.

Q. 107. What doth the conclusion of the Lord's Prayer teach us?

A. The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer, which is, "For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the, glory, forever, Amen," teacheth us to take our encouragement in prayer from God only, and in our prayers to praise him, ascribing kingdom, power, and glory, to him; and in testimony to our desire and as surance to be heard, we say, Amen.
A DIALOGUE BETWEEN CHRIST, A YOUTH, AND THE DEVIL

YOUTH.

THOSE days which God to me doth send,
In pleasure I'm resolved to spend;
Like as the birds, in lovely spring,
Sit chirping on the boughs, and sing,—
Who, straining forth thns. warbling notes,
Do make sweet music in their throats,—
So I resolve, in this my prime,
In sports and plays to spend my time.
Sorrow and grief I'll put away;
Such things agree not with my day.
From clouds my morning shall be free,
And nought on earth shall trouble me.
I will embrace each sweet delight
This earth affords me, day and night;
Though parents grieve, and me correct,
Yet I their counsel will reject.

DEVIL.

The resolution which you take,
Sweet Youth, it doth me merry make.
If thou my counsel wilt embrace,
And shun the ways of truth and grace
And learn to lie, to curse, and swear.
And be as proud as any are,
And with thy brothers wilt fall out,
And sisters with vile language flout,
Yea, fight and scratch, and also bite,
Then I in thee will take delight.
If thou wilt but be ruled by me,
An artist thou shalt quickly be
In all my ways, which lovely are;
There's few with thee who shall compare.
Thy parents always disobey;
Don't mind at all what they do say;
And also proud and sullen be,
And thou shalt be a child for me.
When others read, be thou at play
Think not on God; don't mind to pray,
Nor be thou such a silly fool
To mind thy book, or go to school,
But play the truant; fear not. I
Will straightway help thee to a lie,
Which will excuse thee for the same,
From being whipped, and from all blame.
Come, bow to me; uphold my crown;
And I'll thee raise to high renown
YOUTH.

These notions I will cleave unto,
And let all other counsel go.
My heart against my parents now
Shall hardened be, and will not bow
I won't submit at all to them,
But all good counsel will contemn;
And what I list that do will I,
And stubborn be continually.

CHRIST.

Wilt thou, O Youth, make such a choice
And thus obey the Devil's voice?
Cursed, sinful ways wilt thou embrace,
And hate the ways of truth and grace?
Wilt thou to me a rebel prove,
And from thy parents quite remove
Thy heart also? then shalt thou see
What will ere long become of thee.
Come, think on God, who did thee make,
And at his presence dread and quake
Remember him now in thy youth,
And let thy soul take hold on truth
The devil and his ways defy;
Believe him not; he doth but lie
His ways seem sweet, but, Youth, beware;
He for thy soul hath laid a snare.
His sweet will unto bitter turn;
If in those ways thou still wilt run,
He will thee into pieces tear,
Like lions which most hungry, are.
Grant me thy heart, thy folly leave,
And from this lion I'll thee save;
And thou shalt have sweet joy from me,
Which will last to eternity.

YOUTH.

My heart shall cheer me in my youth
I'll have my frolics in good truth:
Whate'er seems lovely in mine eye,
Myself I cannot it deny.
In mine own ways I still will walk,
And take delight among young folk
Who spend their days in joy and mirth!
Nothing like that while I'm on earth!
Thy ways, O Christ, are not for me
They with my age do not agree:
If I unto thy laws should cleave,
No more good days then should I have.

CHRIST.

Wouldst thou live long, and good days see
Refrain from all iniquity;
True good alone from me doth flow;
It can't be had in things below.
Are not my ways, O Youth, for thee
Then thou shalt never happy be;
Nor ever shall thy soul obtain
True good, whilst thou dost here remain
YOUTH.

To thee O Christ, I'll not adhere
What thou speakst of does not appear
Lovely to me: I cannot find
'Tis good to set or place my mind
On ways whence many sorrows spring.
And to the flesh such crosses bring.
Don't trouble me; I must fulfil
My fleshly mind, and have my will

CHRIST.

Unto thyself, then, I'll thee leave,
That Satan may thee wholly have;
Thy heart in sin shall hardened be,
And blinded in iniquity!
And then in wrath I'll cut thee down,
Like as the grass and flowers are mown
And, to thy woe, thou shalt espy
Childhood and youth are vanity:
For all such things I'll make thee know
To judgment thou shalt come also
In hell at last thy soul must burn,
When thou thy sinful race hast run.
Consider this; think on thy end,
Lest God do thee in pieces rend.

YOUTH.

Amazed, Lord, I now begin;
O help me, and I'll leave my sin
I tremble and do greatly fear
To think upon what I do hear.
Lord, I religious now will be,
And I'll from Satan turn to thee.

DEVIL.

Nay, foolish Youth, don't change thy mind;
Unto such thoughts be not inclined.
Come, cheer thy heart, rouse up, be glad;
There is no hell; why art thou sad!
Eat, drink, be merry with thy friend;
For when thou diest, that's thy end.

YOUTH.

Such thoughts as these I can't receive,
Because God's word I do believe,
None shall in this destroy my faith;
Nor do I mind what Satan saith.

DEVIL.

Although to thee herein I yield,
Yet I ere long shall win the field.
That there's a heaven I can't deny,
Yea, and a hell of misery;
That heaven is a lovely place
I can't deny,'tis a clear case,--
And easy it is to come there;
Therefore take thou no further care
All human laws do thou observe,
And from old customs never swerve;
Do not oppose what great men say,
And thou shalt never go astray;
Thou mayst be drunk, and swear, and curse
And sinners like thee ne'er the worse;
At any time thou mayst repent,
'Twill serve when all thy days are spent.

CHRIST.

Take heed, or else thou art undone.
These thoughts are from the wicked one
Narrow's the way that leads to life;
Who walk therein do meet with strife.
Few Shall be saved, as thou shalt know,
But many to destruction go.
If righteous ones scarce saved be,
What will at last become of thee?
Oh! don't neglect my precious call
Lest suddenly in hell thou fall:
Unless that thou converted be,
God's kingdom thou shalt never see.

YOUTH.

Lord, I am now at a great stand;
If I should yield to thy command,
My comrades would me much deride
And never more with me abide;
Moreover, this I also know--
Thou canst at last great mercy show.
When I am old, and pleasure's gone,
Then what thou sayst, I'll think upon.

CHRIST.

Nay, hold, vain youth; thy time is short
I'll have thy breath; I'll end thy sport!
Thou shalt not live till thou art old,
Since thou in sin art grown so bold;
I, in thy youth, grim Death will send.
And all thy sports put to an end

YOUTH.

I am too young, alas! to die
Let Death some old gray head espy.
O, spare me, and I will amend,
And with thy grace my soul befriend;
Or else I am undone: alas!
For I am in a woful case.

CHRIST.

When I did call, thou wouldst not hear
But didst to me turn a deaf ear;
And now, in thy calamity.
I will not mind nor bear thy cry.
Thy day is past; begone from me,
Thou, who didst love iniquity
Above thy soul, or Savior dear,
Who on the cross great pain did bear.
My mercies thou didst much abuse
And all good counsel didst refuse:
Justice will therefore vengeance take,
And thee a sad example make.

YOUTH.

O, spare me, Lord; forbear thy hand
Don't cut me off, who trembling stand
Belging for mercy at thy door;
O, let me live but one year more!

CHRIST.

If thou some longer time shouldst live
Thou wouldst again to folly cleave;
Therefore, to thee I will not give
One day on earth longer to live.

DEATH.

Youth, I am come to take thy breath,
And carry thee to shades of death:
No pity to thee I can show,
Thou hast thy God offended so.
Thy soul and body I'll divide;
Thy body in the grave I'll hide,
And thy dear soul in hell must lie,
With devils, to eternity.

----------

Thus end the days of wicked youth,
Who won't obey nor mind the truth,
Nor hearken to what preachers say,
But do their parents disobey.
They in their youth go down to hell,
Under eternal wrath to dwell,
And do not live out half their days,
For cleaving unto sinful ways.
LESSONS FOR CHILDREN

Of the Fear of God.

THEY that fear God least, have the greatest reason to fear him.

A fear of departing from God is a good means to keep us from departing from him.

The more we fear God, the less we shall fear men,

They that will not fear God in prosperity, will be afraid of him in adversity.

Means to preserve Mercies.

1. BE thankful for them.
2. Receive them as mercies, not as dues.
3. Prepare to part with them.
4. Expect the continuance of mercies from God; he is the strength of our life, the staff of our bread, the breath of our nostrils, and the length of our days.

Of the Soul.

IT matters not what a man loses, if he saves his soul; but if he loses his soul, it matters not what he saves.

They that are least sensible of their souls wants are most miserable.

It is our greatest wisdom to be watchful over the frame of our spirit--to observe what helps it and what injures it.

If you lose your time, you lose your hopes; and if you lose your hopes, you lose your souls; and when your souls are lost, they shall never be ransomed: when your hopes are lost, they shall never be recovered; and when your time is lost, it shall never be redeemed.
Of Death

THF longest life is a lingering death,
First infancy dies, then childhood, then youth.
