

An impressionistic landscape painting with a textured, brushy style. The scene depicts a wide, shallow river or stream flowing through a valley. The banks are covered in dense, colorful foliage in shades of green, yellow, and blue. The sky is a mix of soft, muted colors like grey, blue, and pink, suggesting a hazy or overcast day. The overall composition is dynamic and expressive, with visible brushstrokes throughout.

No man knoweth the hour when Truth shall break through this earthly dream existence so that all so-called human beings will confess their true being, but this we know, that in heaven there are no unbelievers!

In heaven there are none who do not confess the finished Kingdom, at hand! There are none who do not acknowledge the absolute Christ within! There are none who do not demonstrate in His Name! There are none who see other than the One!
