

FAMOUS MEN OF THE MIDDLE AGES

JOHN HENRY HAAREN

Global Grey ebooks

FAMOUS MEN OF THE MIDDLE AGES

BY JOHN HENRY HAAREN

1904

Famous Men Of The Middle Ages By John Henry Haaren.

This edition was created and published by Global Grey

©GlobalGrey 2018

globalgreyebooks.com

CONTENTS

Preface

Introduction

The Nibelungs

Alaric The Visigoth, King From 394-410 A.D.

Attila The Hun, King From 434-453 A.D.

Genseric The Vandal, King From 427-477 A.D.

Theodoric The Ostrogoth, King From 475-526 A.D.

Clovis, King From 481-511 A.D.

Justinian The Great, Emperor From 527-565 A.D.

Mohammed, Lived From 570-632 A.D.

Charles Martel, 714-741 A.D. And Pepin, 741-768 A.D.

Charlemagne, King From 768-814 A.D.

Harun-Al-Rashid, Caliph From 786-809 A.D.

Egbert, King From 802-837 A.D.

Rollo The Viking, Died 931 A.D.

Alfred The Great, King From 871-901 A.D.

Henry The Fowler, King From 919-936 A.D.

Canute The Great, King From 1014-1035

The Cid

Edward The Confessor, King From 1042-1066

William The Conqueror, King From 1066-1087

Peter The Hermit, About 1050-1115

Frederick Barbarossa, Emperor From 1152-1190

Henry The Second 1154-1189 And His Sons 1189-1216

Louis The Ninth, King From 1226-1270

Robert Bruce, King From 1306-1329

Marco Polo, Lived From 1254-1324

Edward The Black Prince, Lived From 1330-1376

William Tell And Arnold Von Winkelried

Tamerlane, Lived From 1333-1405

Henry V, King From 1413-1422

Joan Of Arc, Lived From 1412-1431

Gutenberg, Lived From 1400-1468

Warwick The Kingmaker, Lived From 1428-1471

The battered crown which Richard had worn was picked up and placed on Henry's head and the whole Lancastrian army shouted, "Long live King Henry!"

Parliament now voted that Henry Tudor and his heirs should be kings of England. Not long afterwards Henry married the heiress of the house of York, and thus both the Red Roses and the White were satisfied, as the king was a Lancastrian and the queen a Yorkist. So the long and terrible Wars of the Roses came to an end.
